News from your Corporate Services Provider

The deadline for filing your income tax return is rapidly approaching.

If you fall under the Self-Assessment category, when preparing your tax return, you will need the FS3, that is the Payee Statement of Earnings for the year of return. Should you have multiple employments, then all the FS3s from the different employments need to be presented. If on the other hand you are a full-time self-employed, you require an income statement for the year of assessment, which can be prepared by our accounting team. The form, together with the documents and any tax due is to be sent and settled by the due date which is the 30th of June 2023. If the personal tax return is filed online, the deadline is 31st of July 2023.

Registering a trademark is important for several business reasons.

A trademark offers legal protection, strengthens brand recognition, enhances consumer trust, safeguards your market position, and contributes to the long-term growth and value of your business. It is a strategic step in establishing and safeguarding your brand identity in the marketplace. Our legal team can assist your business with the registration process to submit a successful trademark application.

We would like to take this opportunity to kindly remind you that our team of skilled accountants and dedicated administration staff is fully prepared and available to provide assistance with any business inquiries you may have.
